

The Lighter Side Of... GROSS

ARTIST AND WRITER: DAVE BERG

BABYSITTING

So how did it go with Little Jim today, Lori?

No trouble at all, Mrs. Morton! He played with the dog all day! It's so cute how they do everything together! They nap together, they eat together, they even drink water together...

...from the toilet bowl!

GOOD LUCK

Look! Somebody dropped change!

MOVIES

You saw a preview of "Slime Bucket"? How was it?

Talk about bad taste! It was disgusting!

In one scene alone, this guy with a chain saw rips open this other guy's stomach and all his guts spew out and his arteries spit blood all over the place! I must have heard 20 people barfing in their seats!

It'll make billions!
